

A GENUINE AMERICAN ROUND-UP

ENTITLED "CALIFORNIA RODEO"

IN TWO BIG REELS

At The Palmetto Theatre Saturday, April 25th

10c

Broncho busting, bulldogging, roping, riding of a mad steer done in true Western style. See the cowpunchers riding furiously after mad steers, lasso and tie them in record breaking time. Fascinating and exciting from start to finish. Saturday's program exceptionally good. See lobby display.

Blue Ridge

Traffic Tied-Up

The driving wheels of an engine on the Blue Ridge railway jumped the track here yesterday at the Walker street crossing, causing traffic to be tied up for a short time. The trouble was soon adjusted, the tracks cleared, and traffic resumed within a short time after the occurrence.

Is There Ever

Snow in April?

Most Anderson people don't know that it ever snows in April and as a matter of fact it doesn't happen in this country, but the people taking the booster trip from Anderson yesterday thought that it was snowing when they reached Pelee. As a matter of fact all the automobiles were covered with some white substance, much resembling snow, but it was afterwards ascertained that this was a portion of the flower blown from near-by sycamore trees.

Force Working

Day and Night

C. W. Frickhoff, superintendent of construction of the Bell Telephone building now going up in Anderson, had a large force of men at work on the building all night. With tremendous high power are lights swung over the building it was as light as day and a comparatively simple matter for the workmen to proceed. Mr. Frickhoff says that he is going to complete the telephone building in record time now.

Secured Option

On The Warehouse

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers Warehouse, held yesterday an option was granted to Frank & DeCamp. This is a matter of general interest to the public, since national usually the farmers of the county care a great deal about the disposition of this place. No announcement has been made by the gentlemen securing the option as to what they will do with the warehouse.

Want Damages

From The County

B. L. Sumney and Mrs. Willie Sumney yesterday filed suit against Anderson county in the sum of $6,000. The notice of suit was filed in the office of the clerk of court and it is presumed that the case will be called at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas for Anderson county. The action is based on the fact that Mrs. Sumney was thrown from a buggy and seriously injured while crossing a bridge in Garvin township, which was known to be defective.

Work Started

On The White Way

Work started yesterday on the preparations for Anderson's "Great White Way." A force of hands started to excavating around the Plaza and if the work arrives in the city next week, as it is now thought that they will, Anderson will have the most beautiful display of lighting the new lights burn before the last of May.

The War Has

Affected Prices

One of the leading hardware firms of the city yesterday received notice from the manufacturers that there has been a decided increase in the price of barbed wire. This is directly due to the war in Mexico, although the public will hardly understand how this is true. Barbed wire is used in the construction of fortifications around the cities and is also used in time of war to some extent for the purpose of delaying approaching troops of the opposing army.

ville, was in the city for a few hours yesterday.

John A. Bolt was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Eva Tribble has gone to Chester, S. C., to attend the wedding of Miss Pauline Crosby.

Mrs. John McAllister of Mulberry, Wis., is in the city on a week's visit to friend and relatives.

I. T. Holland of Holmes Path was in the city yesterday and stated that he is in the race for probate judge to the finish, notwithstanding any reports to the contrary.

H. C. Summers of Altam, member of the general assembly, was in the city yesterday. Clint hasn't been able to come to town much recently as he is getting the farm in good shape.

Dr. J. N. Land of Starr, who was operated upon in another hospital days ago, is getting along well, and is expected home in a few days.

E. Pringle Clinkscale, a prominent farmer of Starr, was here yesterday.

HOME MISSIONS

Baptist Courier: Home Mission receipts from South Carolina to April 18, 1914, $17,500. Balance due to be raised by April 30, $22,500. Receipts from all states, including Evangelism, $152,774. Balance to be raised by April 30, $22,038. The figures from South Carolina do not include the money sent last week on the trail of the W. M. U. Our information is that this sum will reduce the amount yet to come from our State more than $5,000.

Is a Duke

Barth Joe M. H. Ashby, returned from Greenville this morning where he was last evening to be initiated into the mysteries of the Knights of the Order of the Knights of the Order. He was a little the worse for wear today. Mr. W. F. Tolly, who attended the initiation, has been a Duke for some time.

The Dixie Chapter Is Well

The Dixie Chapter of D. C. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Quattlebaum. Those who have convalesced are asked to take their late fortunate neighbors, and the members who go on the car are requested to take the 2:30 P. M. train.

THE SEX FANATICS

The following from the San Francisco Argonaut is rather long, but it will repay anyone to read every word of it:

During the last few years we have seen almost the complete destruction of those reticences upon sex matters, that doubtless had their own attendant evils, but that did actually prevent far more evil than they caused. What we call plain speaking became a vogue and a fashion. Literature and the drama combined in what was said to be a moral crusade, but that was actually a financial crusade. And now the churches have followed suit. Nothing is too private for public discussion, no audience too young for admission and participation, no vital fact too explosive for reckless handling. Upon every side we see gross familiarity at its deadly work. Here in San Francisco we are about to have what its promoters call a Purify Sunday. Countless sermons will be preached to audiences of young women and young men with their own sex relations as a topic. Does any one with a sane knowledge of human nature suppose that even the most exquisite delicacy can neutralize the poison of these sermons? It is not well known to even the tyro in such matters that here at last the most fatal and irresistible of all forces is that of suggestion, and that reason and prudence struggle in vain against it. The cure for this sort of evil is reticence and not publicity, mystery and not familiarity, the home and not the pulpit, the mother and not the school teacher. To err in such a matter as this is to poison the rising generation. Indeed, if we are able to credit the hysterical exaggerations of the women's clubs, the rising generation is already poisoned by a familiarity that presents experiment as a pleasant adventure in well-known paths.

Therefore, it is time that we call a halt to these sex familiarities. They have been at their worst for some time past and now the air is becoming unbreathable. Every field of publicity has been invaded. They have almost persuaded us that sex is the one thing worth thinking about and worth writing about. The results are sufficiently evil upon mature minds that have learned to govern themselves. Upon immature minds, to whom self-government has hardly occurred, it has been little short of disastrous. Every sacred mystery of life has been cheapened, profaned, and all the protective veils of mystery and sanctity have been broken down and in their places we are offered statistics, hospital reports, and lodoforn. It is these sex fanatics that are largely responsible for the juvenile immorality of the day. It is the sex newspaper, the sex drama, the sex novel, the sex reformer, and the sex pupil that have created it. And it has been nursed by the apathy and the neglect of the parents who are quite content that the police-woman and the delinquency courts shall do the work that they have neglected.

Let us hope that we are nearly at the end of this particular epoch, lest some worse thing befall us. It is bad enough that for years past our young people should have been forced to live in an atmosphere of public discussion commensurate only with the sewer. Things will have come to a pretty pass if we must have forced our children to go either to school or to church, for fear of the moral contamination that must ensue.

LOCAL MATTERS AT SENECA
Seneca, April 22.—Seneca had a white frost Tuesday morning. It is thought that the peaches are not injured on account of the advanced growth of the foliage.

Q. T. Bacon and J. W. Todd attended the State meeting of the Knights of Honor in Columbia last week.

Mrs. W. P. Reed returned last Friday from a visit of two weeks to her daughter, Mrs. L. D. Wiley, at Seneca, S. C.

Mrs. C. M. O'Neill is on an extended visit to relatives in the lower part of the State.

Charlie Byrd, Julien Holleman and Isaac Lovin, all of the South Carolina University, are on a two-day tour through the State on account of a student body picnic.

Sen. Bartholomew is improving his mind by reading "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald. He is also reading "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Mrs. W. E. Livingston spent last week at home, returning Monday to Atlanta, where she is keeping her little daughter, Mary, for treatment. The many friends of the family will be glad to know that the little girl is being greatly benefited by the treatment.

Telephone patrons here are pleased to have Mrs. Ethel Aake referred to her position at the switchboard.

CALIFORNIA RODEO SPECIAL FEATURE

At The Palmetto Theatre Saturday, Manager Pinkington states that this feature was only secured after a two weeks effort to secure same. And is one of the most interesting pictures ever shown in Anderson. Showing a genuine Western American Round-Up. To all lovers of Western scenery, and cow-boy life, this picture should appeal strongly. We call your attention to the Ad. On Back page of this issue, an elaborate Lobby Display at the Theatre.

HE'S A GOOD FARMER

Mr. Galley's Peach Crop Is Promising and Fish Crop Also.

Mr. J. J. Galley who enjoys life at his lovely home near Ivy, just in sight of the Abbeville county line, says the fruit crop is no badly hurt he hopes. He has 200 trees in blossom, and will give promise.

Mr. Galley has got something on his mind—no, not politics, just fish. He says the blue catfish and suckers in his pond are the best in Anderson county. This pond is caused by Mr. Galley damming the river to get power to operate his farm by electricity.

WIND CAUSES DAMAGE

Springfield, April 23.—The severe winds for the past four days have injured the young catfish and suckers very much in this section. The damage in this section is much larger than for any season past. The wind whipped the young plants and in some instances killed them by the blowing sands.

PICNIC AT LONG BRANCH

There will be a picnic at Long Branch school house, near Holmes Path on Saturday, May 2. Speakers, J. B. Boggs, Jas. N. Pearson, J. Mack King and others. The public is cordially invited.

Have you noticed the large number of homes that are being painted? It certainly adds beauty to a home. See Dugan before painting.
